I have in this order No 2705-6, dated 12-14-3, dated the 14th Sept 14, been directed that all Sub Assistant Surgeons be required to pass an examination before they are promoted from any one class to the next higher class. No mention is made in the re-organisation order, No 4 679-80, dated 69-46-4, dated the 13th Jan 18. 6 But that is apparently an unintentional omission in drafting the order. 6881 17/5 17.5.21

If it was the intention of Govt. to do away with the promotion examinations, there is no doubt a clause to that effect would have been added in the Re-organisation order. That the intention was to retain the examinations is further made clear by the opinion given by the Senior Surgeon at page 41 in the Medical Re-organisation file 69 of 1916-17.

No. C 2190-10 Bne Dr.

Office of the Senior Surgeon in Mysore,

Bangalore, 2nd May 1921.

From

The Senior Surgeon in Mysore,

BANGALORE

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

Revenue Department,

BANGALORE.

Sir,

I have the honour to report that notice of the usual promotion examination to be held on the 30th April 1921 was, sent to 24 Sub Assistant Surgeons due to be promoted during this year. Of these, some have intimated the circumstances connected with their duty &c., which prevented them from undertaking a journey to Bangalore. Explanations will be duly ~~collected~~ called for from those who neither presented themselves for the examination nor sent any report and their cases will be dealt with according to rules.

2. The marginally noted Sub Assistant Surgeons who evidently left their stations to appear for the examination, have, instead of doing so, -- presented a petition (Copy enclosed) and stopped away. The conduct of these Sub Assistant Surgeons and of others, who came to Bangalore, but ~~is~~ failed to sit for the examination, is highly objectionable.

1. B.Byatarangappa.
2. T.N.Subramanaya Iyer.
3. H.C.Subba Rao.
4. [illegible].D.Rajaratnam.
5. M.Abdul Rahim.

As a punishment, I propose to not only disallow claims for Travelling allowance on the part of all these Sub Assistant Surgeons, but also to stop their pay for the days of their absence from their head-quarters.

3. While I am not willing to tolerate this sort of "Strike" movement on the part of the subordinates of my Department, yet their grievances require early and favourable consideration. Several of the Sub Assistant Surgeons in the Senior grade have not had any promotion for more than 2 years. Unless the Government see their way to remove their grievances, at an early date, the spirit of discontentment and restlessness is likely to spread among the rest of the officers of the Department, as in other parts of India.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

K.B. Raghavendra

SSR-BVA.

OFFG. SENIOR SURGEON.

Petition dated 30th April 1921 from the 5 Sub Assistant Surgeons, to the Senior Surgeon, Bangalore.

We respectfully beg to bring the following few lines for your kind and favourable consideration.

2. Till recently, it was customary for every person who appeared for the Promotion Examination to be given promotion immediately after passing the examination. We now learn that many persons who passed the Examination last year have not yet get the promotion, thereby, showing that passing the examination does not necessarily entitle him for immediate promotion. There is a rumour that promotions will not be given unless five years elapse in the pay of Rs.45/-. This, if true, works injuriously against seniority. Some of us who have put in 6 to 7 years service can get promotion no earlier than those far junior to us in service.

3. Having come to know of these facts on our arrival at Bangalore and also of the fact that very many of the candidates that had to sit for the examination had absented themselves, we felt too much discouraged to be able to attend the examination.

4. As the matter is very serious one for us, affecting - as it does - the whole class of Sub Assistant Surgens, we venture to solicit your very sympathetic consideration and support in the removal of our grievances.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.G.22472-Medl.152-20-2, dated, 27th May 1921, I have the honor to respectfully submit that the absence of any mention of the promotion examination of Sub Assistant Surgeons in the reorganisation order cannot, in my opinion, be held to amount to a cancellation of the same for the following reasons:-

(a) The reorganisation scheme confined itself to the enhancement of the scale of pay of the different grades and the question of modifying the system of promotion examination was never raised in that connection.

(b) G.O.No. 3181-2-Medl28-10-5 dated, 3rd November 1911 which raised the scale of pay of Sub Assistant Surgeon also makes no reference to the promotion Examination of Sub Assistant Surgeons.

(c) The question of promotion examination was decided by G.O.No. 2705-6-Medl.12-14, dated, 14th September 1914, which has not been rescinded or modified or referred to in the reorganisation order.

2. The only change that may be said to have been automatically brought about in the system is that the raising of the minimum pay to Rs 45/- has ~~raised~~ reduced the number of stages of promotion to Rs 65/- from three to two and has consequently reduced the number of promotion examinations to two, one for promotion to Rs 55/- and another for promotion to Rs 65/-. I am not at all in favour of doing away with these examinations which, in a way, compel these Medical Subordinates to read their books and brush up their knowledge. Even in Madras, promotions to Rs 60/- and Rs 70/- depend on passing the promotion examination.

3. Apart from the question of interpretation of the reorganisation order with reference to promotion examination, I beg to submit that the conduct conduct of the Sub Assistant Surgeons in disobeying this office order calling on them to sit for the promotion Examination cannot be allowed to go unpunished. I therefore request early approval of Government to my suggestion made in the concluding sentence of para 2 of my letter dated, 2nd May 1921.

4. As regards the enquiry how an examination can be held under the reorganisation scheme I may say, as already stated above, that two examinations, one for promotion to Rs 55/- and one for promotion to Rs 65/- will be sufficient.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
